Subject : Albanian Legation Rome Plans to Rent Villa
at Lido of Rome.

Enclosures : 1 (Want Ad Clipping).

1. On 20 April 1952 the following want ad, original of which is attached hereto, appeared in the Rome newspaper "Il Messaggero":

Wanted, small villa at Lido of Rome,

The proprietress of a villa at Rome-Lido, an acquaintance of [redacted]'s landlady replied to the advertisement, and discovered that the telephone number given is that of the local Albanian Legation. This matter was reported to Source on 27 April by [redacted], with the suggestion that the matter might be further developed along lines of an intelligence interest. this situation would be through a trusted Italian agent supplied with the necessary financial means. Handling the matter through an Albanian agent would undoubtedly lead to the project's blowing.

5. Field Comment: In view of the recommendation made by Source in paragraph 4 above, copy of the present report is being turned over to ☐ for discussion with ☐ order to determine whether the latter is interested in further exploring the possibility offered. In the event nothing can be done in this direction during the present summer season, it is suggested that Headquarters consider the possibility of renting a villa at Rome-Lido in late winter of next year with a view to enticing Albanian Legation tenants next summer.
